Reading, PA – Christian Y. Leinbach, Berks County Commissioner, was unanimously elected as the 2012 Vice President for the County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania (CCAP) and as the representative for CCAP to the National Association of Counties (NACo) Board during the 125th Annual CCAP Conference held August 14 – 17th in Somerset County, Pennsylvania.

“I am honored by the support of my CCAP colleagues. Additionally, I thank the voters of Berks County for their confidence in me. These positions will clearly strengthen the voice of Berks County voters at both the Federal and State level. It is an honor to serve this county,” said Commissioner Leinbach.

Christian Leinbach will begin serving these terms January 1st of 2012.
